DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-6, 8-14, 17, 20, 23, 26, and 29-40 are currently pending, as per the preliminary amendment filed 9/26/05 with the application.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Stem cell types: (a) hematopoietic stem cell, (b) stem cell isolated from pancreas, (c) stem cell isolated from muscle, (d) stem cell isolated from nerve, (e) stem cell isolated from skin, and (f) stem cell isolated from adipose, as in claims 2 and 6; elect ONE.

Sources of hematopoietic stem cells: (g) bone marrow, (h) cord blood, (i) peripheral blood CD34+ cell populations, and (j) peripheral blood CD34- cell populations, as in claim 3; elect ONE if species (a) is elected.

Transcription factors that are AML1-ETO target factors: (k) AML1, (l) C/EBP alpha, and (m) PU.1, as in claim 10; elect ONE. Claims 35-37 will be examined to the extent they are commensurate in scope with this election.

Types of AML1-ETO target factor function modulation: (n) inhibition of function, (o) stimulation of function, and (p) translocation of function, as in claims 11-13; elect ONE.

Manner of inhibition: (q) inhibition of AML1-ETO target factor synthesis, (r) inhibition of interaction with cellular factors affecting AML1-ETO target factor activity, (s) inhibition of DNA binding of AML1-ETO target factor, (t) stimulated degradation of mRNA encoding AML1-ETO target factor, and (u) inhibition of transcription of AML1-ETO target factor, as in claims 14, 17, 20, 23, and 26; elect ONE if species (n) is elected. Claim 29 will be examined to the extent it is commensurate in scope with this election.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. In other words, applicant should particularly identify one embodiment in which all variables are defined. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 3-5, 8, 9, 30-34, and 38-40.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Pursuant to PCT

Rule 13.2 and PCT Administrative Instructions, Annex B, Part 1(f)(I)(B)(2), the species are not art-recognized equivalents. When alternatives of chemical compounds are claimed, they shall be regarded as being of a similar nature where all alternatives have a common property or activity, and either a significant structural element is shared by all of the alternatives, or all of the alternatives belong to a recognized class of chemical compounds in the art to which the invention pertains. The words "significant structural element is shared by all of the alternatives" refer to cases where the compounds share a common chemical structure which occupies a large portion of their structures, or in case the compounds have in common only a small portion of their structures, the commonly shared structure constitutes a structurally distinctive portion in view of existing prior art, and the common structure is essential to the common property or activity. The structural element may be a single component or a combination of individual components linked together. The words "recognized class of chemical compounds" mean that there is an expectation from the knowledge in the art that members of the class will behave in the same way in the context of the claimed invention. In other words, each member could be substituted one for the other, with the expectation that the same intended result would be achieved.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lora E. Barnhart whose telephone number is 571-272-1928. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday, 9:00am - 5:30pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Michael G. Wityshyn can be reached on 571-272-0926. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
